London, 9 August 2017

PUBLIC NOTICE

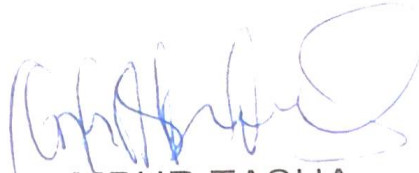

The High Commission regrets to announce that due to unforeseen circumstances, the ministerial delegation that was scheduled to be in the United Kingdom from 12 – 16 August 2017 can only arrive London after the 14th August 2017.

To this effect, the meeting that was scheduled to hold on Sunday 13th August has been pushed to a later date to be announced in due course for everyone to participate.

The same procedures for attending the meeting would apply as were indicated in the previous notice.

The High Commission sincerely apologises for any inconveniences that might have been caused by this change of programme./-

Anna MBUR TASHA
Minister Counsellor
Chargé d'Affaires a. i.
